

THE UNIVERSITY OF KWAZULU-NATAL LIBRARY SERVICES
CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO THE

SOUTH AFRICAN LIBRARY WEEK SEMINAR

THEME: Technology in Libraries and Quality Education

DATE

Tuesday,
18 March 2025

VENUE

Senate Chamber
Westville Campus, UKZN

TIME

09h00 – 13h00

CLICK HERE
TO VIEW THE LIVESTREAM

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: MAY CHANG

Topic: Technologies in Libraries and Quality Education

Ms May Chang is the Library IT Director at the University of Cincinnati, OH and has 15+ years of management and leadership experience in special and academic libraries. She engages in strategic, operational, services, and budgetary planning and leverages technology for staff and patrons. Her professional interests include digital transformation of organizations, digital inclusion and literacy, and IoT and smart and connected communities. She is also actively involved in professional organizations including IFLA Library Buildings & Equipment Section Committee Member.

SPEAKER: NTHABISENG KOTSOKOANE

Ms Nthabiseng Kotsokoane is the Assistant Director at the University of the Free State's Library and Information Services. She was the inaugural Chair of the IFLA Regional Council and a member of the IFLA Governing Board (2021–2023). Ms Kotsokoane also served as Chair of the AfLIA Academic Library Section and as a Governing Board member, in addition to being a Representative Council member of the Library and Information Association of South Africa (LIASA).

SPEAKER: LINDY NHLAPO

Toic: Let no one be left behind: update on South African LIS liquorice.

Lindy Nhlapo is a qualified librarian who studied in South Africa and outside the country. She is the Head of UNISA Science Library at Florida Campus, the IFLA Regional Manager for Africa under the auspices of UNISA as a host to IFLA Africa Office, and a LIASA activist since inception.

CLICK HERE TO RSVP

Enquiries: Michelle Webster - webster@ukzn.ac.za